6. Reports
  - a. Curriculum Chair – Kelly Douglass
    - i. AB1111 Faculty Survey and Convening Opportunities Info
      1. ASCCC is seeking input from the five disciplines with courses in Phase One of AB1111: Communication Studies, English, Math, Political Science; Psychology
      2. There are two ways to provide input, both by May 20:
        - a. Submit the name of a representative of one of the six courses from your discipline to Senate President Jo Scott-Coe by May 20; this person will represent your discipline’s view on the class and the Common Course Numbering template at one of the June zoom meetings (June 12, 18, or 24 – see email from ASCCC)
        - b. A survey from ASCCC to be completed by May 20; should be sent to all faculty (FT/PT) who teach the course
      3. Both the survey and the Zoom meetings are asking for input on the Common Course Numbering template for your course. This template will be used to determine if the course is similar enough to the other across the CCC system to have the same course number (the goal of AB1111). The template appears to be largely based on the current C-ID (course identifying) descriptor. A brief reminder/introduction of what that is:
        - a. C-ID numbers the course identification descriptors that we use to ease transfer and identify comparable courses across systems.
        - b. The Common Course Numbering (CCN) system is what AB1111 authorized and will renumber courses across the community colleges to the same number and discipline name for easier transferability for students; it is going to be built on the back of this existing C-ID system.
        - c. The CCN templates list all the parts of a Course Outline of Record and identify which "course elements" will be required to be identical and which can retain local variation. Faculty are invited in the survey and at the meetings to comment on the form and these elements.
      4. What the CCN template survey is and what you should be looking at:
        - a. This survey allows individual faculty to weigh in on the template.
        - b. Faculty filling out the survey should review or have available the COR for the course and the C-ID descriptor for the course from c-id.net

- c. Review the CCN template for your course linked in the survey and compare it to the C-ID descriptor (I have already taken the surveys for English; for the two English courses, the CCN template uses only info from the current C-ID descriptor in the various "required elements" portion. There does not appear to be anything new in the required sections, but that is something that faculty should be looking at when they see the CCN template (it is only available once inside the survey.)
  5. Two opinions for Chair Douglass and points for the discipline to consider and for folks attending a zoom or doing survey to think about:
    - a. I would be cautious about any CCN that requires identical material that goes beyond what is already in the C-ID descriptor because your course already has all the elements from its relevant C-ID descriptor; that's why you have that designation. So your discipline has already done the work to align to the current system and to embed in your COR all the additional content and teaching methods and materials that our local subject matter experts have agreed on. If the CCN template is asking for new required and identical elements, that would be outside of the local curriculum review process.
    - b. Take note of the section on the template regarding "Course Objectives/Outcomes-Part 1." This is a required elements section. If you look at the C-ID descriptor, there are only objectives. There are no required outcomes. If the option for outcomes is listed on the CCN to indicate that we can put them into our CORs as either objectives or outcomes, I don't see any concern; that is already the case. But if the addition of outcomes to this section header is to indicate that we may have required outcomes to our CORs, that is something that, in my opinion, would be a very serious concern. Outcomes are what we assess and are tied to larger institutional processes like program review, accreditation, assessment projects and faculty work, etc. If they are required, they couldn't be revised or improved. In my own survey responses, I asked for greater clarity. Your discipline should consider that language in your own contexts.
- ii. DE legacy-approved courses and accreditation
  1. Accreditation will randomly pull sections taught online to review process.
  2. All courses on attachment are legacy and there is no documentation on how these courses are taught online.
  3. Please review with your department and develop a plan to submit the forms.
  4. Be aware that there is no change in the course being approved, but that the documentation needs to be updated; launch by spring 2026 at latest; use most current DE language for similar courses to make work easier but still link to course-specific outcomes.

- iii. Update on Independent Study courses
  - 1. Independent Study policy appears to need more revision to be more specific in student contact hours and other key items that all CORs would need to include in specific detail
  - 2. At the RCC senate, there was general support for a student driven/initiated model. Norco's stance was that it should be student driven. At MVC Senate, questions about implementation and funding, student supervision, but there are some faculty in the BIO discipline who do not want to take away the faculty led portion. Some faculty are able to obtain grants that allow students to do additional lab and data work.
  - 3. TR/DCC/Standards have found some models that specify hours and responsibilities.
  - 4. Acknowledging that while we aren't a research institution, we are teaching students to be researchers, so it seems like we are moving generally toward a BP/AP revision that is likely to encourage student driven research, but not exclude faculty driven research with clearer requirements about faculty obligations and contact hours.
  - 5. An ad hoc workgroup to pull together work already done plus no research and faculty input to just hammer out a draft, and then take that to Standards in the fall.
- b. Articulation Officer – Ellen Drinkwater – no report
- c. Instructional Programs Support Coordinator – Casandra Greene
  - i. PSY/SOC 48 new COR date and ADT plan
    - 1. Casandra and Ellen will be working this summer to update all ADTs for CalGETC, AB111, and PSY/SOC 48 (mandatory clerical changes)
    - 2. If the TMCs have changed since last discipline update of ADT, those will required faculty revision – this is not optional. Because of CalGETC, we MUST update them. Ellen and Casandra will have more info for everyone in early September, but if your department already knows you are planning to do updates, let them know.
  - ii. Importance of October program deadline: prepare your department that there may be program work necessary in the fall with the October deadline.
- d. Tech Review Chair – Steven Schmidt – no report
- e. VPAA – Lynn Wright
  - i. Support expressed regarding all these upcoming deadlines
  - ii. Curriculum Institute reminder – if you still want to go, reach out to Lynn.
- f. ASRCC Representative – David Caloca and Alexa Salazar Trujillo – no report
- g. Equity-Minded Curriculum
  - i. Rep. Hammock shared from the librarians
    - 1. please alert the library if you are using a new text in the summer/fall so the library can get at least one copy online

2. Don't use non-compliant copyright violation downloads of books – please reach out to the Librarians if you have questions
  3. Flex credit – meet with librarians to assess texts, and ensure the Library has the correct resources for students
    - ii. Chair Douglass reminded everyone that Kweku often gives an impassioned speech once we are past the drop deadline: students are enrolled and they are there. Please be mindful that they are still there. Support them to succeed where possible
7. Curriculum Policy & Procedure:
- a. Motion to approve shift of Curriculum meeting times from 3-5pm to 2:30-4:30pm: 1st Drinkwater; 2nd Conrad; (16 yes; 0 no; 2 abstentions (Kovacs and Perez); motion is approved
    - i. Discussion about what committee members would prefer; Some teach until 2:50.
    - ii. This is not permanent in perpetuity – if it doesn't work we can change it again.
    - iii. Begins next academic year.
  - b. Curriculum Representative Election Updates? (Dance and Theater; Life Sciences; World Languages; others?)
    - i. Ryan Joseph continuing for Life Sciences
    - ii. World Languages Rep not yet determined
  - c. RCCD Local Gen Ed – Per Title V
    - i. English, Reading, and Math are no longer competency; English and Math are specific Areas, but not competencies which mean that like other courses, do not necessarily require a C grade.
    - ii. Students have an overall GPA of 2.0.
    - iii. Transfer institutions still require C grades.
    - iv. Pre-req still requires a C or better.
    - v. Discussion about messaging to students.
8. Open Forum
- Discussion forum provided for members of the committee to clarify points on agendized topics or request an item be added to a future agenda..*
- a. Question about how members report out to departments. Sometimes reported in department meetings. Others send out Curriculum meeting minutes or an abbreviated version of the minutes relevant to department. [Note to all that minutes are available on the rcc website]
  - b. Clarifying question about minor mods and how they will now have board dates.
  - c. Library has a budget line for instructional materials that aren't textbooks; this can be materials for students to use in library or can check out. Examples – skeletons, calculators. If your discipline has needs please reach out.

NVN-43	Intermediate Concepts of Vocational Nursing - Maternity and Pediatrics	Per Title IV Department of Education 34 CFR 668.14(b)(26)(ii), programs must align with regulatory board minimum hours, which is 1,530 hours (California Code Regulation, Title 16, section 2532) according to Board of Vocational Nursing &amp; Psychiatric Technicians in order for students to receive Title IV funding. The RCC VN program is currently at 1,548 hours. Therefore, 18 hours need to be removed in order to be in compliance. This change is required by July 1, 2024. Due to a decrease in OB and pediatric clinical sites, it is most reasonable to remove the 18 hours from the lab portion of this course, which in turn, will decrease the course by 0.5 units. There is no needed change in course SLOs, objectives, or course content.	R	Approved

AHS-60	Special Topics in Art History & Visual Culture	Art history and visual culture are constantly evolving; a rotating, special themed class enables faculty to continually craft the classroom experience and curriculum to foreground new critical perspectives, areas of research and scholarship, and emerging trends. A special themed class also provides a venue for faculty to share their own areas of particular expertise, research, and other professional talents with students. The content of the course is by design flexible; it will be selected and approved by the department. The direction of the course will be determined by current needs and interests of students and faculty. The organization of the course and material will vary from semester to semester, and instructor to instructor.	N

Common Course Numbering (CCN): Faculty Convening and Survey Opportunities

Dear California Community College
Colleagues,

With the end of the academic year quickly approaching, we would like to provide an update on faculty convening and survey opportunities related to the Common Course Numbering (CCN) implementation.

Faculty Convening

As relayed in the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges (ASCCC) Update and Information on Common Course Numbering Implementation communication, the ASCCC is actively engaged in ensuring faculty voice and participation in the development of CCN Course Templates. In order to ensure faculty input, we are hosting three virtual CCN faculty events and have reached out to Academic Senate Presidents at all California Community Colleges as well as to our intersegmental partners to request appointments of one faculty member for each of the following six courses per institution to participate in these faculty convenings.

The six faculty from your college, working with intersegmental faculty from across the state, will review and provide feedback on the draft CCN Templates for the six highest-enrolled general education courses at each event identified below:

Each appointed faculty member will be expected to attend the entirety of one of the following CCN virtual events. All events will address the six courses. The ASCCC will provide a $260 participant stipend with funding provided by the CCC Chancellor's Office.

- Wednesday, June 12, 2024, 9:00 am - 12:00 pm
- Tuesday, June 18, 2024, 11:00 am - 2:00 pm
- Monday, June 24, 2024, 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

If you would like to participate in one of these faculty convenings, we encourage you to reach out to your college's academic senate president as soon as possible to express your interest. Appointments are due by Monday, May 20, 2024.

Survey Opportunity

Please note that while the number of faculty participating in these events is limited given the funding provided, the input of faculty at large is critical to this process. If you teach one or more of the first six courses identified for CCN Course Template development, we welcome and encourage your participation in providing early feedback in the CCN process through a survey for each of the identified CCN courses to help shape the June convening discussions and outcomes. You can access the survey via the link below and spread the word regarding this additional opportunity for faculty involvement.

Thank you for your ongoing commitment to your discipline and California community college students across the state. Please direct any questions or concerns by email to info@asccc.org. We will respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Aschenbach, President
